15 ORDER RE STIPULATION TO EXTEND TIME TO RESPOND TO THE COMPLAINT

16 Re: Dkt. No. 14

17 The June 12, 2015 stipulation submitted by the parties is rejected. Although there's 18 nothing wrong with the proposed 30-day extension of the deadline to respond to the complaint, the 19 parties have provided no reason for more than four months to pass between the date the defendants
20 file any motion in response to the complaint and the date the motion is heard. Absent some 21 compelling reason for such a delay, the parties should submit a new briefing schedule which 22 culminates in a hearing on the defendants' responsive motion no later than September 10, 2015.
